Child Protection Specialty Guide
Classic / Seminal Articles list

Note, this is not a current or comprehensive list of references. Please refer to the Journals page of the Child Protection specialty guide or request a literature search from your HHS library.

CONTENTS

General articles.......................................................................................................................... 1
Abusive head trauma................................................................................................................. 1
Retinal Haemorrhage................................................................................................................ 2
Emotional abuse ........................................................................................................................ 2
Injury biomechanics ................................................................................................................... 2
Induced illness ........................................................................................................................... 2
Investigation methods................................................................................................................ 3
Neglect....................................................................................................................................... 3
Physical abuse........................................................................................................................... 3
  Cutaneous injuries - General .................................................................................................. 3
  Cutaneous injuries - Bruising ................................................................................................. 4
  Cutaneous injuries - Burns ..................................................................................................... 4
  Fractures .................................................................................................................................. 4
  Abdominal injuries.................................................................................................................. 4
Psychosocial assessment.......................................................................................................... 5
Sexual abuse .............................................................................................................................. 5
Other .......................................................................................................................................... 6

General articles

Abusive head trauma

Retinal Haemorrhage

Emotional abuse

Injury biomechanics

Induced illness

Investigation methods

Neglect

Physical abuse

Cutaneous injuries - General

Cutaneous injuries - Bruising

Cutaneous injuries - Burns

Fractures

Abdominal injuries

Psychosocial assessment

Sexual abuse

Other