Cairns Hospital Library (LKC)
Paid Membership Information
Private health practitioners within Cairns local area can apply for membership to Cairns Hospital LKC through payment of annual membership fee and registration.

Individuals Membership fee is $200 per annum in 2019.

Services available. The membership fee entitles you to the following:

Loans
Members can borrow up to a maximum of 5 books at any time from the Library general collection (excludes reference or special collections) for 3 weeks. Loan renewals are possible, but only if there is no-one waiting to borrow the item. Interlibrary loans are not available.

Search requests
Individual members are required to perform their own searches. Library staff will assist with basic database search techniques only; eg search strategy.

Photocopying, printing, faxing
A fee of 10c per page will be charged for B&W printing or copying or 20c for colour.

Assistance is provided for document delivery (article copies) on a case by case, limited basis only. Members requiring resources not held by LKC should approach their local public library for assistance.

WiFi access is only available within LKC, on a case by case basis.

Conditions of use (borrowing):
- No re-lending of library resources to other individuals or organisations
- Members will not allow any other individual or organisation to borrow library materials under their name
- Members accept responsibility for library material recorded as on loan to them. This will include paying for all lost, damaged or non-returned items that will be billed to members in accordance with LKC lending policy
- Members agree to familiarise themselves with library borrowing policies and adhere to them
- Members agree to inform the library of any change to the information supplied at the time of registration

Access to CKN online resources / databases and research facilities
Online access to resources such as CKN databases, etc is not available. Check LKC public resources web page for access to free research databases and resources.
